DISNEY CHARACTER GUIDE

The Disney characters as shown on the following pages represent a cross-section of those which are the most familiar from our short cartoons as well as from our full-length features.

We show them here in full color purely as a means of introducing each character to you. These sheets are not intended as definitive in color or drawing of the character. Model sheets are available and should always be used for the drawing of any Disney character. For color, 4 x 5 Ektachrome transparencies can be provided upon request for either the artist's reference or for reproduction.

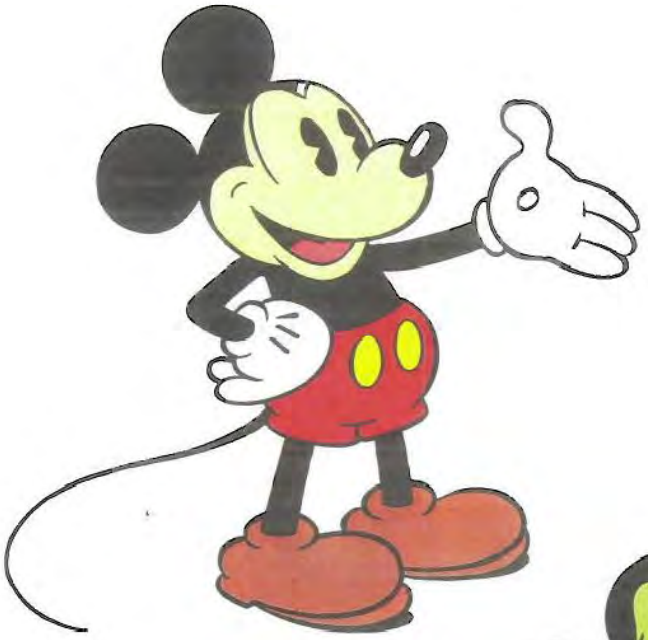

In preparing this Disney Character Guide, no attempt has been made to establish any set scale or comparative size relationship between characters. Instead, we have shown each character as large as possible for better display.
